Teachers gather to oppose pension threats

A record 1,025 RTAC members filled the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton-Palmer House at the Fall Luncheon Oct. 27. Retired teachers came together to learn about the uncertain future of the pension and the insurance subsidy and to mobilize efforts to safeguard the constitutionally guaranteed rights that RTAC has been defending since its founding in 1926

THE PRESIDENTS' PAGE

HAIL...

Vaughn J. Barber's term as President has expired and he has handed the gavel to me--the next elected President.

Mr. Barber, our respected leader, has graciously joined a distinguished list of RTAC Presidents and Boards of Directors who have dedicated themselves to the goal of the maintenance and enhancement of our pension benefits.

Outgoing president Vaughn J. Barber (left) passes RTAC leadership to newly elected President Steven A. Kailes

Vaughn has spent much of his time and efforts towards this fulfillment.

We retirees have been fortunate since, for over 84 years, RTAC has been the only organization devoted exclusively to the interests of retired Chicago Public School teachers and administrators.

I will strive to continue our long history of this advocacy.

...and FAREWELL

It was my great honor to serve as the president of the Retired Teachers Association of Chicago (RTAC). This is a very special association with a proud history of teachers and administrators who have through the years provided leadership in our public schools. RTAC is a care-minded organization that places great value in the retired persons who have earned the rewards they now experience through their pensions.

It seems like yesterday but it was 14 years ago when I first became a member of RTAC. I have seen many changes in the organization. I served as treasurer, and then as trustee to the pension board as representative from RTAC, and last but not least as president of the association.

Two years ago, when I became president, I had as my major goal the growth of RTAC. I wanted to see a 10% increase in the number of retired teachers to join RTAC. I can cite the recession, the economy, our investments as well as many other factors which prevented this from happening. In the end, more work needs to be done in a membership drive.

Despite these dark times, RTAC has experienced two of the most prosperous years in its history. RTAC fought the loss of revenue from investments by cutting back on less essential activities. RTAC redirected revenue to services which were critical to retirees.

RTAC continues to be a major voice in Springfield protecting our pension and health care rebate. This task requires more than just RTAC, which is why the successes we have experienced have only been possible by your individual involvement.

We are fortunate to have in addition to our leadership, committed and dedicated individuals to serve the organization. I thank each and every one of you, the members, the board and staff for your personal commitment and involvement. Without your visits and contacts with your legislators our progress in Springfield would have been greatly diminished. Thank you.

The task continues, but the experiences RTAC has had during the past two years augur well for RTAC's future.

PROTECTING OUR PENSION

[Editor's note: Perhaps at no other time in RTAC history has it been so important for members and all retired teachers to come together to launch a defense against the attacks of the legislators who would like to use our pension funds to pay the enormous debts facing Illinois. Those funds were part of our compensation; they belong rightfully to us. Yet, "pension envy" is rampant, and it would be very tempting to legislators, with one stroke of a pen, to change the laws protecting our pension.

We must take action to prevent this. We have a powerful weapon--instant information via e-mail. It is now possible for RTAC and the Pension Fund (CTPF) to reach out to every member with the latest information and plans to counteract any legislative moves that would try to deprive us of our benefits. We can reach thousands of members instantaneously, and thousands of members have already signed up to receive important e-mails from RTAC and CTPF. Please register with RTAC and CTPF if you have not already done so.]

STAY INFORMED: REGISTER YOUR E-MAIL ADDRESS WITH CTPF

Stay up-to-date on information that is important to you and your pension. Register with the Chicago Teachers Pension Fund online e-mail system.

The CTPF is collecting e-mail addresses so it can notify members quickly when action is needed regarding issues of importance to Fund members. "The more e-mails we register, the larger and faster our response will be when an important issue arises or legislative action is pending," said Frances Radencic, director of member and office services.

"Our database is separate from the union or an employer's, so it's important that Fund members register with CTPF to stay informed."

To register with CTPF, go to www.ctpf.org and click on the link "Sign Up to Receive News Updates Via E-Mail." Complete the brief registration process, and you will be on your way to receiving e-mail notifications from your Pension Fund.

WEBSITE REPORT

RTAC WEBSITE: OUR LINK TO LAWMAKERS

Now, more than ever, it is of particular importance that we are vigilant during this new legislative session. It is quite possible that there will be legislation introduced which will adversely affect our pensions. In particular, applying the Illinois income tax to our benefits seems to be on the agenda. The authorization and funding of our medical reimbursement also seems to be in question.

The status of various pieces of legislation will be posted on the RTAC website and the information updated as it becomes available, usually on a weekly basis but sometimes as often as daily. In the event that legislation is introduced which would adversely impact our pension or medical reimbursement, there will be an "RTAC ALERT" e-mail sent out and a "Red Button" labeled "Urgent Action Needed" on the home page. It is hoped that everyone will remain vigilant and in personal contact with their individual legislators. (See the RTAC ALERT NETWORK article on page 4.)

New job offerings are regularly posted and maintained for one year, after which they are removed. There is an extensive list of places that need volunteers to help with their programs. There is also an extensive list of venues that offer various cultural, academic and service opportunities. The humor page provides a collection of jokes, puns and humorous situations that have been provided by readers.

For more information and/or to provide suggestions, you may e-mail the webmaster at webmaster@rtac.org.

POINTS TO REVIEW WITH YOUR LEGISLATORS

When visiting your legislators in their district (local) offices or when talking to your legislators on the phone, please remember the following:

1. Be courteous; don't lose your temper. Tell them your name and phone number so they can contact you as needed.
2. Share your concerns as a retired Chicago Public School teacher.
3. Urge your legislators to pressure Governor Quinn to release the second half of the $75 million already allocated in the budget for Chicago retirees' health care.
4. Urge your legislators to introduce and pass the "Ad Hoc Lite" bill increasing the minimum pension for our oldest teacher retirees to $18,000.
5. Urge your legislators to introduce and pass a bill that increases the number of retiree trustees on the Pension Board from three to four. There are 24,000 active teachers now with six active teacher trustees but just three retiree teacher trustees for 23,000 annuitants.

6. Urge your legislators to increase the amount of money the Pension Fund can spend for our health care from $65 million in any year to 100% of health care costs. It is NOT STATE MONEY we're talking about, but simply allowing the Pension Fund to spend its own money in this case.
7. Urge your legislators to pass no more legislation that is adverse to retired teachers—no taxes, no increase in age requirements, no reductions in the Annual Increase, no delayed pensions. Remind your legislators that YOU paid for your pension over the years. The pension was NOT given to you by the school board, bureaucrats or legislators.
8. Be sure to thank them for their time and assure them that you will be reading the papers to see how they have responded to your message.

PENSION NOTES

WALTER PILDITCH:

THE OVERALL ECONOMY

As the year 2010 ended, there was continued concern about the general direction of our economy. There appeared to be signs of weak consumer confidence including the fear of a slowing recovery and some deflation in prices. Oil prices are gradually increasing and there is still mixed news on housing. Unemployment continues with a 9.6% rate at the beginning of the quarter and this is up slightly once again. Our overall economy progress is rated at a 2.0% on an annual basis. In addition, the consumer price index increased at an annual rate of 2.7%, showing a gradual increase over the past year.

Overall production capacity ranks at 74.7% at this time, somewhat higher than a year ago, but lower than the past five years.

Continuing from the third quarter of 2010, there is a positive performance in the US equity market. Large cap stocks did better than small cap stocks while mid caps did their best advance in about a year. International equity showed a double digit increase in the third quarter and growth stocks did better than value stocks.

Our United States dollar continues to depreciate against other world currencies. Looking at the world picture, as we have done in past issues of this News Bulletin, we now have news that Ireland has suffered massive debts caused by a banking and property collapse. It remains to be seen if these events have a lasting effect on our country.

Walter Pilditch

CHICAGO PENSION FUND

The total overall value of our fund stands at $9.4 billion representing a half billion dollar increase over the past quarter. This amounts to a return of 9.4% increase making us just under the industry wide results. While our local equity investments are doing well, the international equity measures are lagging as measured by benchmarks.

As to fixed income, the picture looks good. Noticing the progress of individual funds, New Amsterdam Partners and Piedmont are doing better than their index measure. Two other local equity funds, Waddell and Reed as well as Zevernbergen are ahead of their benchmarks.

Noting mid caps, Channing is doing the best and this is measured by their stock selections. Small cap stocks DFA and Ariel are doing better than the Russell measure and Attucks shows up well as one of our minority-owned funds. In addition Apex is doing well.

In international equity, Ernest Partners is the only manager to better their benchmark. Other funds in this area all underperformed this past quarter. In the field of fixed income LM Capital and Western both performed well. As to our infrastructures only Macquarie showed positive quarterly results. Two hedge funds had positive results, K2 Advisors (2.8% rise) and Mesirov (0.1% rise). Ending this report with an overall comment, some progress is being accomplished although there are certain bumps in the road ahead. It will take many months and perhaps years to make up the gains needed to regain our overall value of about three years ago.

MARY SHARON REILLY

At this time, the proposals have not been sponsored or assigned numbers. Be sure to follow legislation on the RTAC Website

- Increase the maximum total payment for health insurance rebate to $100 million.

Mary Sharon Reilly

CTPF LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

- Automatic annual increase of 3% beginning one year following retirement. Allow 2.2 benefits for all teachers without the cost to upgrade; allow refunds of 2.2 upgrade costs to all teachers.

ROOM FOR OPTIMISM

It was the RTAC Luncheon of October 27, 2010, at the Palmer House. Over a thousand retired Chicago teachers attended because they are aware of the current crisis of funding and possible reduced pension benefits. It only shows that teachers are by nature informed and active and will look out for themselves. It may seem like what the kids call a “bummer” to continuously stress our current crisis. For balance, I present some encouraging facts regarding our pension system.

In 1889, Otto Bismarck of Prussia initiated the first pension plan. Financed by a tax on workers, it was designed to provide a pension annuity for workers who reached the age of 65. At the time, the life expectancy for the average Prussian was 45 years. In 1895, Chicago Teachers formed one of the first U.S. pension plans now called the Chicago Teachers Pension Fund. It was formed 40 years before Social Security and has not missed a payment through two big wars, numerous small wars, one cold war, the Great Depression, Women’s Suffrage, the Civil Rights Movement, 20 U.S. Presidents, 9/11, and the financial meltdown of 2008-2009. From this perspective our current crisis appears a bit smaller.

Furthermore, we are not alone. In 2010, pension plans were legally changed in 19 other states as well as Illinois. Statutory changes included reduced benefits, higher employee contributions, restrictions on early retirement, and replacement of defined benefit plans with defined benefit/defined contribution hybrid plans in Michigan and Utah. We have had a defined benefit plan since 1895 with a pension defined as a percentage of final average salary.

James F. Ward

Some systems were worse off than we were. For example, in Colorado and Minnesota, projections showed them running out of assets without corrective action. They both solved their problems through legislative action based on shared input and sacrifice. Our reduced health insurance rebate starting January 1, 2011, might be viewed as part of our “shared sacrifice.” Let us hope that other stakeholders will be as patient and understanding as retirees when final solutions are formulated.

As John F. Kennedy once said, “A rising tide lifts all boats.” The economy seems to be starting back on an upward slope. The United States is still a huge economy where 4.6% of the world produces 25% of world output. Our economy is bigger than that of Japan, Germany, and China combined. I believe that pension obligation bonds may provide a partial solution to our underfunding. These bonds allow local or state governments to borrow at low rates for the pension fund that earns higher rates over the long term.

Lastly, from a social viewpoint, what are the odds of default? What would the city and state do if our pension fund actually ran out of money? I think our statesmen will not let that happen. The very last expenditure a government would omit would be police benefits. Police and teacher benefits have always been high legislative priorities. You know legislators definitely will not default on legislator pensions. On that optimistic note, let us return to the task at hand and fix the current problems. Make a date with your legislator today! JFW. urokward@yahoo.com

- Repeal SB 1946.
- Receive amount equal to 20% of what the state appropriates TRS. [Suburban Pension system]

AID FUND

by Steven A. Kailes,
President Teachers Aid Fund, Inc.

The Aid Fund has been very fortunate this year. We have received several bequests which have made it possible to increase our allotments to our clients by 3%. Our clients are usually burdened with extraordinary medical expenses. And then added to that, increases in rent. We are all happy to do our part aiding our fellow teachers

The benefactors will be remembered and memorialized on the plaque we are establishing.

Bequests to the Aid Fund can easily be made and, if one chooses, with no extra paperwork. I welcome people to speak directly to me if they have any questions.

I also urge people to call me or our Executive Director, Bob Bures, if they know of someone who might be needing financial help and is reluctant to apply. We will handle this most discreetly without mentioning your name.

STROKE: REMEMBER THE FIRST THREE LETTERS: S-T-R

During a barbecue, Ingrid stumbled and took a little fall. She assured everyone that she was fine. They offered to call paramedics, but she said she had just tripped over a brick because of her new shoes.

They got her cleaned up and got her a new plate of food. While she appeared a bit shaken, Ingrid went about enjoying herself the rest of the afternoon.

Ingrid's husband called later telling everyone that his wife had been taken to the hospital; at 6 p.m. Ingrid passed away. She had suffered a stroke at the barbecue. Had they known how to identify the signs of a stroke, perhaps Ingrid would be with us today.. Some stroke victims don't die. They end up in a helpless, hopeless condition instead.

A neurologist says that if he can get to a stroke victim within three hours he can totally reverse the effects of a stroke...totally. He said the trick was recognizing the stroke, having it diagnosed, and then getting the patient medically cared for within three hours.

First, remember the '3' steps, S-T-R-, the first three letters of the word STROKE. Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack of awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke.

Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking three simple questions:

S *Ask the individual to SMILE.

T *Ask the person to TALK and SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE coherently, for example, "It is sunny out today."

R *Ask him or her to RAISE BOTH ARMS.

If he or she has trouble with ANY ONE of these tasks, call 911 immediately and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher.

‘Keep Shining’

Dr. Darren R. Weissman: Author, Physician, Visionary

What's your dream? Mine is to awaken humanity one person at a time through the infinite power of love and gratitude. I'm challenging you to shine. We're all one family, one race...the human family, the human race. As the late great Reggae icon Bob Marley stated, "One love...One heart... Let's get together and feel all right."

The journey of transformation begins the moment you choose to love yourself for exactly who and where you are. Begin today by embracing everything and everyone with deep gratitude. Choose to find meaning and value in the journey rather than the destination.

You'll soon discover that the colors and flavors of your life deepen, opening your palate and passion to an extraordinary way of being and living with purpose. Dreams become reality for those that choose to take action. The attitude of gratitude is love in action. Keep shining! --Darren

FALL LUNCHEON HIGHLIGHTS...

The Beasley group was prepared to party.

Former Faculty members of Beasley Academic Center Magnet School festooned two tables at the Fall Luncheon with balloons to celebrate the joint birthdays of former principal Dr. Ollie McLemore and Dr. Carmen Palmer. "All of [RTAC President] Barber's children attended Beasley. President Clinton visited Beasley and mentioned it in a national debate. "I'm the principal he brought to Inauguration Week in Washington," Dr. McLemore said. She also was executive director of the Illinois Commission of Brown vs. the Board of Education at the 50th Anniversary Memorial.

Ruth Bohrer, who taught at Reinberg School, enjoying luncheon events

*Newly elected RTAC President Steven A. Kailes visited with Past President May M. Hunter

The Real Winner of the Four Seasons Hotel weekend at the Spring Luncheon was Emelda Estell. However, instead of enjoying her prize herself, Emelda gave the luxury weekend package to her daughter and son-in-law for their 4th anniversary.

THE SPEAKERS....

Pension Fund Director Kevin Huber and Chicago Teachers Union President Karen Lewis pledged solidarity and cooperation in the battle to preserve our pension and health benefits. Both urged members to address their legislators personally during this pension crisis.

Executive Director Bob Bures urged, "Vote for the one who will do the best for your pension.... Gov. Quinn wanted to attend our Fall Luncheon, but I told him, 'Only if you'll sign a pledge not to sign any negative legislation to our pension.' We can't wait. Look at their records, call them, ask them what are they going to do about us."

EXCERPTS FROM SOME OF THE LUNCHEON SPEECHES

Kevin Huber – There is serious national pension envy. The Tribune and Wall Street Journal called us "privileged."

Our Pension Trustees thought it better to lower the [health insurance] rebate from 70% to 60%. Nobody's arguing our position; everyone's arguing the taxpayers' position.

I'm urging everyone to go to their legislators; it's hard for them to go against what they promised; [when they see] a "face."

Pension Fund holdings earned 13.5% last year. It's a revenue problem, not an investment problem. They want to take $1.2 billion from our pension fund. It happened in 1995 also—the cost to the Pension Fund was $2.1 billion. That's $3.3 billion of money we should have but we don't. This is a revenue matter.

Predictions: I see continued attacks on the health insurance subsidy because it is not guaranteed [by the Constitution]. We must work hard to fight this. [Regarding the 3% COLA (cost of living adjustment)] "They are not thinking of lowering it. They are thinking of taxing you, though. They raised the retirement age to 67 for new hires. They don't expect us to work to 67. We just can't collect our pensions 'til [we are] 67. We want to stabilize the health insurance rebate.

Karen Lewis – Thank you for your years of service to the children of the CPS. Go to your legislators.

We need to be involved. Tell them who you are, that RTAC and CTU sent you to them. We need to put a face, need to tell our stories. So many don't know what it's like to walk a picket line out in the cold. [They are] Asking us to give up tenure—the things we worked for. Now it's very easy to lose your job if you're not "grateful." You know what I mean.

We need to tell our stories. Younger members need to know the struggle and sacrifice we made. I want to work with RTAC. We need to have a real project— [make a] video tape of and our activities. Yes, we'll work with you. Thank you for all you have done for us and for our students. I admire you all."

THE WINNERS....

Sheree Levinson, Lake View, 2005 $100, Palmer House weekend; Liz Weaver, Hoyne, 2007 $100; Mildred Brainer, Von Humboldt, 1983, $50, wine; Dale McFadden; Linda Kozik, Englewood, 2006; Rhue Rhyme, Parker Community Academy, 2009; Wilma McKenney, Crane, 1993; Katie Heffernan, Dist. 1 Social Worker, 2000; Constance Guardi, Juarez, 2001; Mary Jenig, Graham, 1993; Daphne Baldie (seated); Dolores DiPego, Belding, 1987.

Special guests at the luncheon were the Hon. Eugene Moore. Recorder of 'Good' Deeds and his assistant Darlene Williams-Gurnett

HOW TO LOCK YOUR CAR AND WHY

I locked my car. As I walked away I heard my car door unlock. I went back and locked my car again three times. Each time, as soon as I started to walk away, I would hear it unlock again.

Naturally alarmed, I looked around and there were two guys sitting in a car in the fire lane next to the store. They were obviously watching me intently, and there was no doubt they were somehow involved in this very weird situation .

I quickly chucked the errand I was on, jumped in my car and sped away. I went straight to the police station, told them what had happened, and found out I was part of a new, and very successful, scheme being used to gain entry into cars.

Two weeks later, my friend's son had a similar happening. While traveling, my friend's son stopped at a roadside rest to use the bathroom. When he came out to his car less than 5 minutes later, someone had gotten into his car and stolen his cell phone, laptop computer, GPS navigator and briefcase. He called the police and since there were no signs of his car being broken into, the police told him he had been a victim of the latest robbery tactic--there is a device that robbers are using now to clone your security code when you lock your doors on your car using your key-chain locking device.

They sit a distance away and watch for their next victim They know you are going inside the store, restaurant, or bathroom and that they now have a few minutes to steal and run. The police officer advised manually locking your car door by hitting the lock button inside the car--that way if there is someone sitting in a parking lot watching for their next victim, it will not be you.

When you hit the lock button on your car upon exiting, it does not send the security code, but if you walk away and use the door lock on your key chain, it sends the code through the airwaves where it can be instantly stolen.

This is very real. Be wisely aware of what you just read and please pass this note on. Look how many times we all lock our doors with our remote just to be sure we remembered to lock them--and bingo, someone has our code and whatever was in our car. (Snopes Approved)

Service Committee

LOWER AGE FOR FLOWERS

At the urging of first vice president and chairman of the Service Committee Marcella L. Morrison the RTAC board of directors adopted a resolution to send flowers to RTAC members beginning on their ninetieth birthday. Formerly, flowers were sent only after members attained the age of 100.

The Service Committee meets monthly and send out over 100 cards to members age 85 and up. Currently, there are 23 members on the service committee. New members are always welcome.

WELCOME, JOHN LEWIS

A frequent visitor to RTAC Board meetings., retired P.E. teacher John Lewis said he became an RTAC Life Member immediately after retiring in 2003. He attends because "I am retired and this is where you should be to find out information regarding our pension." He is married to Karen Lewis, CTU President.

A DIFFERENT APPROACH TO READING

By Dr. Teddy B. Osantowsk

One of the biggest factors causing low test scores and high drop-out rates is poor reading ability. Some students are disengaged due to boredom or lack of understanding. Instead of the status quo, why not try a different approach?

We have heard or read of “fix-its” such as: after-school tutoring programs, charter schools, smaller class sizes, single-sex education programs, and higher salaries for teachers. The draw-backs are: after school-tutoring extends the school day leading to fatigue; charter schools cannot serve the vast numbers who need help with reading.

Smaller class sizes will still use the same current teaching methods not beneficial for all students; single-sex education programs prevent social interactions between genders as society requires; higher teachers salaries do not guarantee that present instruction methods will be successful.

What is a solution to our increasing number of students with lower reading achievements at all grade levels? Existing programs or methods do not use a structured phonics program to teach reading. Most teachers have a lack of training in using phonics in the classroom. Phonics cannot be taught as a hit-or-miss method. Phonics instruction must be sequential with each level building on the previous levels. It must not be a memorization process, but a method which can be transferred to ALL academic subjects and used, independently,

Dr. Teddy B. Osantowski moved to Henderson, Nev., from Illinois in 1999. She distinguished herself as an outstanding educator in Illinois and was a college instructor at Prairie State College. She established the Dr. Teddy B. Osantowski Textbook Fund, through the Prairie State College Foundation, to help needy students buy textbooks. She was Director of Special Education for the Posen-Robbins School District in Illinois. She taught in the Chicago Public Schools:

outside the classroom.

Which phonics program is best for use in a school district? One that is: developed for pre-school learners to high school learners; not memorization but has association with the learner; cost effective and easy to learn; aligned with the state’s Standards; geared to all learning styles; supportive of diverse populations; and research-based so that the school district has proof before wasting time and money to determine the program’s effectiveness.

Using phonics in the classroom gives students the tools to attack word sounds and word meanings and engages the use of eyes, hands, bodies, writing tools and voices, simultaneously, as they use their minds. By keeping students thoroughly engaged, progress is quicker and greater on measurable goals thus eliminating off-task behaviors.

With a growing Hispanic population and growing numbers in special education, it is paramount that teachers use phonics with reading programs so that no learner is “pulled-out” of the regular classroom to receive reading help. Learners can be given supplemental instruction on a one-to-one basis with the teacher, a teacher assistant, a “paired” classmate, or a parent’s help in the home. Testing of comprehension occurs on the spot as the tester can determine immediately whether or not the reader is having difficulty with the text.

Phillips High School and Kershaw, Gompers, and Marquette Elementary Schools.

She created and has presented her “Hands-on Phonics in Reading” (HOPIR) program at local, national, and international conferences. Presently, it is being used to improve the reading scores of a local school. It is geared toward non-readers of all ages, but is highly effective for remedial learners also.

A MOTHER'S PETITION

*As I set alone in my room,
I think about my baby child;
The son of my elder years
Whom I love so dear.*

*This child, my friend, who was loaned to me, is ill.
With a disease of infinite unmercy.
I ponder what do I do? Where do I go?
My mind said, "Go deep within yourself."*

*Prayer is the answer to all things.
So I go to my father with a wounded heart;
Asking, my father to cover him with his loving mercy,
To touch this child, with his salvation and healing powers.*

*My God is a Good God,
He is like no other God;
He is the creator of the universe,
All power is in His hand.*

*God of my youth,
God of my elder years;
God of my heart and my life,
I love you my God, my Father.
Thank you!*

[Composed for a friend's dying son]

Where's our rebuttal?

In a letter addressed to Director Ned L. McCray, a member wrote:

Hello, Ned,

Thank you for working so diligently on all the committees and as past president of RTAC. As per our conversation at the luncheon, could you PLEASE bring up the following at the next meeting:

We as an organization should put out a rebuttal for all the negative publicity and explain OUR viewpoints regarding our pensions. Many retirees are living at or near poverty level and do not have "lucrative" pensions.

Talk to Kevin Huber, Karen Lewis and tell them also that there needs to be coordinated rebuttals given to all the negative publicity. Perhaps a professional Public Relations consultant could be helpful in producing a positive ad, radio spot, internet options such as You Tube, Facebook and newspaper ads.

Maybe we could also bring to the public's attention the benefits, pensions and perks of "our legislators."

Thank you,

Alice Bab

In Praise of President Barber

Dear RTAC:

I repeat: Hurray for our PRESIDENT, Vaughn Barber! He's got guts! Yes he has!!

We need to remind our downstate people that if it wasn't for CHICAGO, this state would have been bankrupt years ago! Furthermore, if they are really serious about cutting expenses, let them start by reducing THEIR OWN PENSIONS by 50%!!

I really like that V[o.]67N[o.]3 cover!! I think maybe our PRES should have been astride a HUGE HORSE!!!

Really like News Bulletin's look!!! A thousand, nay, a million kudos to our dedicated staff at RTAC who work so hard for all of us!

Retirement: busy, exciting, rewarding

I retired in 2006 ending 18 years of teaching at Edward Coles Language Academy. After [a total of] 35 years of teaching, I am proud to say that my professional career included teaching in the Catholic School System, the Chicago City Colleges and the Chicago Board of Education. I consider my 22 years of teaching in the Chicago Public Schools as exciting and rewarding. My teaching experiences really prepared me for the next phase of my life—RETIREMENT!

Retirement is the time in my life when I can fulfill many desires. One of my desires was to own my own business. I have been able to accomplish this goal by operating an Avon home-based business. I am an Avon representative and unit leader with about 25 ladies and men working under my leadership. As an Avon Unit Leader, I am still teaching because I am training people to operate a successful business.

Because teaching is in my DNA, I have started an organization: Encircling Education. The organization is designed to assist teachers, train parents and work with students to reinforce basic skills.

Another desire I had was to travel, travel, travel! To fulfill this goal, I operate an on-line travel agency.

So, Fellow Retirees, it's time to live our lives to the fullest extent. If you want to have your own business and make a little money, call me @ 773-374-5180. If you want to travel near or far, call me @773-374-8988.

Finally, Fellow Retirees, let's give back to make our school system the best in the nation: Volunteer. Call me @773-374-5180 OR e-mail me @ Shawthorne1194@comcast.net.

Retirement Should be a time of activities that include fun, exciting and rewarding experiences. It's time to LIVE!

SATELLITE DOINGS FLORIDA

By Jean Wise

The third Retired Teachers luncheon in Southwest Florida will be held at the Creekside Restaurant located in the Villages of Country Creek in Estero, Florida, on Wednesday, March 2, 2011. The Villages is located on Corkscrew Road midway between I 75 and Route 41. This is the same location as last year. Social Hour will begin at 11:30 a.m.

A highlight of this year's luncheon will be a presentation by Walter Pilditch on pension issues and updates. Walter is a past president of RTAC and currently serves as a trustee on the pension board. He will certainly give current information that will be of interest to all retirees.

All retired Chicago teachers, principals, and personnel are invited to attend as well as spouses and friends.

Reservations may be made with Rosemary McMahon, this year's hostess by phone 239-591-2879 or by e-mail RM9706@aol.com after January 24, 2011.

SAN DIEGO

By Sam Dolnick

On Tuesday, October 12, 2010, the San Diego Satellite met for a luncheon/business meeting at the Olive Garden Restaurant in Carlsbad, California. Forty-two notices were mailed; fifteen people responded. As the postal service did not return any mail from the non-responders indicating non-delivery, it is assumed, that for one reason or another the recipients were not able to make the event.

Participants were Dorothy Benshop, Jack/Frances Blumenthal, Sam Dolnick, Sylvia Kayser, Nancy Lewis, Paul/Carol Mooney, Barbara Perkins, Ellen Perry, Evalyn/Arthur Schiff, Clem/Rose Schulman, and John Wilson.

To our surprise and pleasure, Vaughan Barber, president of RTAC, and his wife, who happened to be visiting in San Diego, dropped in and had lunch with us. Vaughan brought us up to date on the shenanigans of the CPS in withholding funds from the pension of-vice that they are legally obligated to supply. He also mentioned that the medical reimbursement for 2011 will be reduced from 70% to 60%. Hopefully the legislature, during their lame duck session, will supply sufficient funds to bring the reimbursement back up to 70%, but the outlook is dim.

The next luncheon/business meeting will be held at noon on Tuesday, April 12, 2011, at the Olive Garden Restaurant on Carmel Mountain Road as it appears to be in the center of where our retirees are living. We welcome any drop ins. If any of our colleagues, in San Diego County, are not receiving reservation notices, please contact Sam Dolnick at 5706 Baltimore Drive, Unit 348, La Mesa, CA 91942, 619-697-4854, samdolnick@juno.com to be added to the list.

With warmest regards to everyone!

Sam Dolnick

Guess who came to lunch....

MEET THE NEW DIRECTORS

Elected for two-year terms at the Fall Luncheon, Hubert C. Jackson, Jr. and Louella Preston. Hubert wants to make all retired teachers aware of how much RTAC has done and is doing for us. Louella, who also serves as Trustee for the Village of Niles, would like to help increase coordination with our state legislators to further RTAC goals.

YOUR ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Register for RTAC ALERTS (see page 4)
2. Register for CTPF ALERTS (see page 4)
3. Contact Project Vote Smart through the RTAC Website (RTAC.Org) or call 1-888-868-3762. Get your legislators' names and contact them by phone, mail, email or in person. Use "Points to Review With Your Legislators" (see page 5) and DO SOMETHING to save our pension!

*The Officers,
Board of Directors and Staff of
The Retired Teachers Association of Chicago wish you and yours
a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year*
